NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
CREST Center for Geospatial and Environmental Informatics, Modeling and Simulation
Doctoral Fellowship Information

The goal of CREST-GEIMS is to improve Coastal Resiliency through research projects focused on Geospatial Informatics, Environmental Informatics, and Community Resilience and Public Health.

Eligibility

- Current or prospective Graduate students in TAMU-CC Geospatial Computer Science or Coastal and Marine System Science Doctoral Program
- U.S. Citizen
- URM Ethnicity (African Americans, Hispanics, Native Pacific Islanders, American Indians, and Native Alaskans)

Benefits

- CREST-GEIMS Doctoral Fellowship
  - Stipend with BS $1800/month
  - Stipend with MS $2200/month
  - Stipend after advancing to PhD candidacy $2400/month
- Tuition and fees coverage
- Summer research internship (off campus/collaborator site)
- Conferences and Professional meetings travel support

For more information, please email: Celina.Garcia@tamucc.edu visit: https://bit.ly/3f7AGZ2
or scan:

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY CORPUS CHRISTI

NSF CREST
CENTER FOR GEOSPATIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATICS, MODELING AND SIMULATION